

Canadian contemporary folk music singer songwriter Cameron Molloy is a natural born performer. He effortlessly delivers captivating vocal performances with a relaxed stage presence. Cameron has arrived at a place in his performances where he enchants people with both his voice and his instrument. Those qualities plus a story telling songwriting ability beyond his years make Cameron a definite gem in the musical community.

Following numerous coffee house performances at the age of eight, he was inspired to embark on his songwriting career. Years later, his relentless and prolific dedication is a testament to his destiny to create a deep catalogue of exceptional songs. His first self-titled EP release, that is available on iTunes, CD Baby and Amazon, is an eclectic blend of genres that showcases his multitude of music personalities. His follow-up single called "A Word in Every Whisper" is a testament to his Maritime roots showcasing his ability to deliver exceptional lyrical content and memorable melodies that listeners believe were crafted by an industry veteran.

This young export artist at the age of 16 years old has an immense list of performances that include; a duo performance at a sold out Casino New Brunswick show, Stan Rogers folk festival main stage "tweener" act, not to mention a top nine finalist on the hit television show "YTV Next Star" that was broadcasted nation-wide. This is merely a few of the countless performances this gentlemen has experienced, leaving Canadian audiences in awe and on their feet by this young gentleman of the stage everywhere's he goes.

His passion for giving back to his community is another character trait that speaks volumes for this young artist. He has performed at countless charity events that include; The Riverview Arts Centre in support of the arts, the Christmas Daddies/Tree of Hope event in support of cancer initiatives, Hockey Heroes for the Heart and Stroke Foundation, and many more.

Cameron's ever-growing fan base via social-media on platforms such as; YouTube, Twitter, and Instagram are just the tip of the iceberg for this budding musician. Cameron continues to write new material for his upcoming full-length album release. He continues to hone his craft, attend songwriting workshops and network to seek out new opportunities that include showcasing his skills at music industry conferences and festivals. With a bright future in front of him, his fans can be assured, that his best work is yet to come ...