

Twenty-one year old singer-songwriter-guitarist from Moncton, New Brunswick, Cameron Molloy is a full-time musician pursuing a formal education in Jazz Studies at Saint Frances Xavier University. His skillset is ever-growing whilst he continues to work on his musical composition to engage audiences. His debut album Lyric Journal is an intimate collection of songs, each with its own unique story of love and loss to touch the hearts of listeners. Keeping the sound authentic to live performance and Maritime essence, the album exhibits exceptional melody and lyric delivery.
